INFORMATION FOR APPLICANTS
17	Description of Assignment	The project's specific objective is to provide housing and land ownership to over 250,000 landless and homeless families and individuals. This will be achieved by settling them on various types of land, including khas land (government-owned land), resumed land (land reclaimed by the government), donated land, and, in certain cases, purchased land. Each beneficiary family will receive not only living accommodations but also a joint title deed of land ownership in the names of both the wife and husband. The primary goal of the project is to transform these settlements into dynamic villages, thereby igniting socio-economic development within the ASHRAYAN-2 program. All processed are already digitized in Ashrayan-2 project. Now it is required to update and maintenance of database, monitoring system, web & mobile apps with some new modules and integration with the existing system.
